

Roero Arneis DOCG

Grapes 100% Arneis

Region Canale, Piedmont, Italy

Harvest Mid September

Winemaking Following sugar and acid valuations that help establish the best harvesting period, the grapes are picked and then rested overnight in refrigerated cells at a temperature between 0°C and -2°C, after which the grapes are pressed. Maceration of the grapes is done with both skin and must, giving the wine more fragrance, structure and longevity. The low temperatures at this stage of the preparation gives the wine its fuller colour. Fermentation takes place in steel casks and the wine is bottled in March.

Tasting notes The taste is intense and persistent, with an apricot and apple fragrance, a hint of camomile and, sometimes, slightly spicy. It stimulates the palate with a harmonious taste and a good structure.

Food pairing It's recommended with hors d'oeuvres, risotto, pasta and fish.

Serving temperature 12-13° C

Barbera d'Alba DOC

Grapes 100% Barbera

Region Castellinaldo, Piedmont

Soil clayey-limestoned

Harvest End of September – beginning of October.

Winemaking Even if it is a young, fresh and fruity wine, these vineyards are subjected to a double clearing. The fermentation takes place in stainless steel casks with temperatures of 25-26° C; this ensures a good colour, fragrance and aroma. Following fermentation, the wine is transferred in 1500-2000 Lt wood casks and in French barriques previously used at least twice. After the malolactic fermentation, the wine remains in wood casks to the summer and is bottled in July. The wine is introduced the market in September, one year after the harvesting.

Tasting notes A bouquet of undergrowth and of egriot cherry. The taste can be powerful but very soft.

Food pairing It's recommended with dishes rich in taste, like soups and meats, and with soft or rich cheeses.

Serving temperature 18°C

Langhe Nebbiolo DOC

Grapes 100% Nebbiolo

Region Castagnito, Piedmont

Soil clayey with sand

Harvest Beginning of October

Winemaking The harvesting is done in two sessions, one week from one another. Maceration is developed in stainless steel casks for 4 to 5 days. The wine stays in 600 litres oak casks for 8 to 9 months and then it is transferred in stainless steel casks. The wine is bottled in June and September, one year after the harvesting, and is ready for the market.

Tasting notes The color is red with an ethereal fragrance, elegant; there are perceptions of violet, marasca and final notes of spice. It is full, aristocratic and delicate

Food pairing Perfect with roasts, game and matured cheeses.

Serving temperature 18° C

Barbera d'Alba DOC Due Gelsi

Grapes 100% Barbera

Region Castellinaldo, Piedmont

Soil Clayey-limestoned

Harvest End of September – beginning of October.

Winemaking We believe a good wine born on the vines so we devote a long time to them throughout the year and we practise a double clearing. The harvesting period is determined by taking in consideration the sugar/acidity ratio and the phenolic maturity. The harvest is done in two sessions. The pressing takes place slowly just to eliminate all stems and mannas. The fermentation takes one week with controlled temperatures. The low temperatures at this stage of the preparation gives the wine a darker colour. The wine then rests in French barriques for one year, where the malolactic fermentation develops. In July the wine is bottled and is ready for the market in October, two years after the harvesting.

Tasting notes Rich fragrance, sumptuous, with a note of red fruits and, in the end, vanilla and liquorice. Elegant, with a full taste, powerful with a sturdy structure.

Food pairing It is indicated with red meat; mature and very mature cheeses.

Nebbiolo d'Alba DOC Loreto

- Grapes 100% Nebbiolo
- Region Canale, Piedmont
- Soil Clayey-limestoned with sand
- Harvest Beginning of October

Winemaking In this vineyard the yield per vine must not be more than 2 kg so, for this reason, we practise a double clearing. The grapes are harvested by hand to select the best bunches. The fermentation takes place in stainless steel macerators to guarantee the correct skin-must contact and an adequate color extraction. The wine then stays in oak, where the malolactic processing develops for 12-15 months and then again in stainless steel casks. It is bottled in August, two years after the harvesting and in October it enters on the market.

Tasting notes Silky taste, complex fragrance, aristocratic, elegant with notes of redcurrant, bilberry, liquorice and spice.

Food pairing It's a big wine good with roasts and seasoned cheeses.

Serving temperature 18° C

Barolo DOCG Le Coste di Monforte

- Grapes 100% Barbera
- Region Le Coste in Monforte d'Alba, Piedmont
- Soil clayey with calcareous
- Harvest Second half of October

Winemaking In this vineyard the yield per vine must not be more than 2 kg so, for this reason, we practise a double clearing, one at the beginning and the other one at the end of August. The grape harvest by hand, in two turns, 6 to 10 days one from the other. The fermentation takes place in stainless steel macerators to guarantee the correct skin-must contact and an adequate colour extraction. After this process the wine stays in oak casks for 24 months, where the malolactic process is developed, then it stays again in stainless steel casks for 12 months, after which it is bottled and kept in the wine cellar for 8 months. Four years after harvesting, the wine is ready for the market.

Tasting notes The bouquet is elegant, it offers scents of raspberry, liquorice and spices notes. In mouth it is extensive, massive and harmonious.

Food pairing Pairs well with important dishes, meats and seasoned cheeses.
